January 20

On this day in 1961, the youngest man ever elected President delivered his Inaugural Address. John F. Kennedy stirred the heart of America when he said:
 "The energy, the faith, the devotion which we bring to this endeavor will light our country and all who serve it—and the glow from that fire can truly light the world. And so, my fellow American—ask not what your country can do for you—ask what you can do for your country... Let us go forth to lead the land we love, asking His blessing and His help, but knowing that here on earth God's work must truly be our own."

QUOTES ON MARRIAGE:

Only two things are necessary to keep one's wife happy. One is to let her think she is having her own way; the other, to let her have it.—Lyndon B Johnson

I married the first man I ever kissed. When I tell this to my children, they just about throw up.—Barbara Bush

Marriage is our last, best chance to grow up.—Joseph Barth, 20th century clergyman

For two people in a marriage to live together day after day is unquestionably the one miracle that the Vatican has overlooked.—Bill Cosby

The formula for a happy marriage? It's the same as the one for living in California: When you find fault, don't dwell on it.—Jay Trachman, humorist

A successful marriage requires falling in love many times, always with the same person.—Mignon McLaughlin, author

A happy marriage is the union of two forgivers.—Ruth Graham Bell
